

DSW

DSW.com

DSW KIDS APPAREL COMPLIANCE GUIDE Apparel includes: Socks, hosiery, leggings.

TEST SUBJECT	REQUIREMENTS
Total Lead Content- Substrates Testing for lead content of substrates is required for any accessible component part of children's product and applies to all metal and plastic utilized in the product and must be performed per color. Testing is required for zippers, snaps, buttons, sequins, rhinestones, rhine studs, glitter and other similar decorative comments. Must also comply with any reporting requirements.	Comply with: • CPSIA • Maximum 100 ppm (0.01% by weight) • California Prop 65 • Illinois Lead Poisoning Prevention Act • Washington Children's Safe Product Act
Lead - Painted/Colored Surfaces Testing is required for the total lead content of paint or similar surface coatings. Must also comply with any reporting requirements.	Comply with: • CPSIA – Maximum 90 ppm • California Prop 65 • Illinois Lead Poisoning Prevention Act • Washington Children's Safe Product Act
Phthalates Must test for phthalates DEHP, BBP and DBP. Must also comply with any reporting requirements.	Comply with: • Maximum 1,000 ppm • California Prop 65 • Washington Children's Safe Product Act
Flammability All fabrics must be tested and meet certain legal standards unless it qualifies as an exempt fabric under 16 CFR 1610.1.	Comply with: • 16 CFR 1610
Flame Retardants Must test for TRIS, TCEP, TDCPP. Prohibited under Prop 65.	Comply with: • California Prop 65
Cadmium Cadmium must be tested, and may be present in, paint or similar surface coatings, colored plastics (PVC) and metal components. Must also comply with any reporting requirements.	Comply with: • California Prop 65 • Washington Children's Safe Product Act

Apparel chart continued following pages.

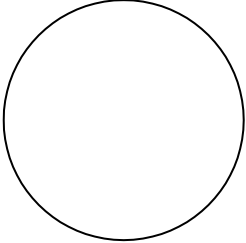

Revised: December 2023

DSW

DSW.com

DSW KIDS COMPLIANCE GUIDE

TEST SUBJECT	REQUIREMENTS
Small Parts Must test small parts on accessories for (1) attachment strength and (2) size. Attachment Strength 15 lbs. minimum at 10 seconds Size No parts that can fit into:  1.25"	Comply with: • 16 CFR 1501
Sharp Points Any object that has a point sharp enough to activate a test device is considered a "Sharp Point". This includes safety pins, sharp edges on metal hardware, Hook and Loop Tape (Velcro), zipper teeth, zipper stops and embellishments, etc.	Comply with: • 16 CFR 1500.48 • 16 CFR 1500.49
Sharp Edges Tacks & nails, sharp edges on metal hardware, Hook & Loop Tape (Velcro) zipper teeth, zipper stops embellishments, etc.	Comply with: • 16 CFR 1500.48 • 16 CFR 1500.49

Apparel chart continued on following page.

Revised: December 2023

DSW

DSW.com

TEST SUBJECT	REQUIREMENTS
Tracking Label Tracking label information is required to be permanently affixed to the product to the extent practical. Must contain: • Manufacturer or private labeler name; • Location and date of production of the product; • Detailed information on the manufacturing process, such as a batch or run number, or other identifying characteristics; and • Any other information to facilitate ascertaining the specific source of the product.	Comply with: • CPSIA • 16 CFR 500 et seq.
Children's Product Certificate (CPC) Must issue a CPC based on passing test results which address all consumer product safety rules, standards, regulations or bans that apply to the product for use by a child. An accredited third-party lab must be utilized for this testing.	Comply with: • CPSIA

Revised: December 2023